

2 Holden Crescent Traralgon VIC

3 1 2

With properties becoming harder to get in our ever-growing region, this character filled little cottage is a charm.

A lot of the work is already done, including modern kitchen, polished hardwood floors- and numerous other updates, all leaving more money for you to extend or add your perfect cottage gardens.

This home is situated on a large corner block and has easy access on both sides to the shed or to park off the street a trailer or caravan if needed.

The home is close to schools and surrounded by other charming, renovated cottages adding to a great street appeal for a family or investor alike.

Viewing is a must in this current market.
